

TWO POSITIONS IN COMMUNITY RECREATION
Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism
College of Applied Health Sciences
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Position: The Department of Recreation, Sport and Tourism invites applications for two nine-month, tenure-track faculty positions in areas related to community recreation. The positions are at the Assistant Professor level.

Available: August 16, 2010

Description: The Department seeks two candidates with research and teaching expertise in building healthy communities and advancing quality of life through community park and recreation agencies. Desirable areas of application include: the management of physical, human, or financial resources, community development and/or strategic planning. Preference will be given to applicants with a line of scholarly research that fits one or more of these or related research areas, the ability to acquire external funding to support of her/his research, and demonstrated teaching experience. Applicants who have potential to excel in these areas will also be considered.

Qualifications: Applicants must hold an earned doctorate or terminal degree in an appropriate field by August 2010.

Responsibilities: Conduct and publish research in one's chosen area of expertise as it relates to community park and recreation agencies, seek external funding in support of research endeavors, teach undergraduate and graduate courses and advise and direct student theses and dissertations, engage in professional and public service activities, and serve on department, college, and university committees.

Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Closing date: Screening of candidates will begin on October 30, 2009 and will continue until the position is filled.
